

PROJECT MANAGEMENT SUCCESS A VIEW FROM THE FUTURE

Pat Reed

Bio

Pat Reed is an experienced Agile executive, coach, transformational leader and trainer with proven success transforming large Agile organizations and developing world class enterprise Agile accounting, PMO, Portfolio Management, Strategy, Release, Change, Performance Management and Adaptive career processes and practices. She led transformation teams at some of the world's largest companies and successfully led mega projects at Disney and Universal Studios.

Pat excels in leveraging cutting edge technology, delivery and project management methods to solve challenging business problems with an impressive delivery track record across a wide range of industries including Mental Health, Criminal Justice, Criminal Intelligence, Entertainment, Retail, eCom and Academia.

She is active in the PMI community as a Council Lead for the 30,000 member Project Management Institute (PMI®) Agile Community of Practice (<http://agile.vc.pmi.org/>) and is author of the forth coming book "Making Value Visible".

Publications

Making Sense of Agile Accounting, planned release Spring 2015