

A trusted workforce management advisor to some of the largest healthcare organizations in the country, Ken Coons has held senior leadership positions in marketing, product management and client success. He has focused on workforce management during most of his 25-year career, overseeing the implementation and adoption of solutions at over 500 healthcare sites.