

Ryan has been in the healthcare industry for 14 years now, and has helped design private home systems, long term care systems & acute care systems over his tenure as a distributor. He has strong communication skills, and has extensive education on proper use of floor based lifts and ceiling mounted lifts. He has been OSHA certified in Occupational Safety & Health training. He strives to make people's lives easier through compassion.