

David is an entrepreneurial manager with extensive software industry experience in Sales, Channel Management, Business Development and Marketing. He helps lead Vayyar Home's activities in the US to improve elderly care in senior living communities, residential settings, and other care environments. More recently, David is leading the growth of Vayyar's Partner Program by helping Vayyar's Nurse Call System and technology partners bring touchless elderly care technology to operators and healthcare providers.