

Eleanor Alvarez's 40-plus-year career as a provider and consultant always has focused on caring for the elderly. She left the corporate setting after working for several of the nation's largest senior living and care companies to open The Ganzhorn Suites, a specialized memory care assisted living community, and founded LeaderStat, a healthcare recruiting and consulting firm for senior living and care providers.