

Jan Weinstein is currently Executive Director at Publicis Health Media leading a major "Power of One" account since April, 2019. She spent two years at Wavemaker leading Amgen and new business efforts and being part of the Agency's Transformation Team.

In 2016, she joined Vizeum as Client President overseeing all NY accounts, following eight years at sister agency Carat leading Pfizer Pharmaceuticals, Macy's, Beiersdorf, Tourism Ireland, and Philips Lighting.

Jan spent eight years leading teams at FCB for the all of the agency's DTC accounts, including Lilly, Merck, Roche, Alcon, Amgen, MedImmune, NuvaRing and Plan B in addition to overseeing The US Census Bureau (Census 2010), Beiersdorf, and Fisher Price. At FCB, she also led the Nabisco Biscuit portfolio including Oreo, Chips Ahoy! and Teddy Grahams as well as the agency's Travel Business (Jamaica, BVI and Fairmont hotels) from 2000 to 2001.

From 1998 – 2000, Jan worked at both Campbell's Media Alliance and MediaEdge on Campbell's, ultimately overseeing media for soups, beverages, sauces, prepared foods, and Pepperidge Farm. She also ran Combe, Inc. while at MediaEdge.

Jan was recipient of two MediaWeek Plan of the Year awards, has been honored by Working Mother and in 2011, was named a Media All Star by AdWeek. She used to be an avid traveler (and hopes to be again), having visited six continents and 49 states. Jan is the proud mom of two sons (Brett and Scott), and grandma of three cats (Sunny, Misty and Moss).
