

Conducts product demonstrations for clients, consultations with partners, researches product ideas and needs, moderates online professional development seminars on a variety of operational management topics. Patrick has 6 years of experience with the WorxHub team.