

Ryann has worked in the employee engagement industry for nearly a decade, helping hundreds of clients Make the World a Better Place to Work. She is a subject matter expert on how employee engagement impacts healthcare and senior living organizations. For nearly 10 years, her ability to listen, challenge, and educate clients has led to effective solutions that build trust and deliver results. In her prior role as a Client Success Manager, Ryann managed client accounts that have seen quantifiable results such as reduced turnover, increased occupancy, increased patient and client satisfaction scores and increased profitability.